Thirty years ago, the banks of the river Siagne were the high point of leisure in the Cannes basin and during the summer period, the heart of the city beat there during Robinson's evenings.

Since 2013, the city of Mandelieu-La Napoule has wanted to rediscover the spirit that once animated Robinson's neighbourhood.

In the middle of summer, under the starry sky and along the banks of Siagne, come and share rare moments in Mandelieu-La Napoule. Numerous shows as prestigious as they are eclectic for all tastes and all generations are offered in an enchanting setting.
